AI-Native Commerce Operating System · 2026 Edition

THE PROBLEM

Every growing store runs on channels that don't talk to each other.

Inventory drifts across every channel

Stock updates lag between the website, marketplaces and the store counter, so an item sells twice — or shows in stock when it isn't.

Catalog changes wait on a developer

A price change or a new variant means raising a ticket instead of just editing a page.

COD & courier reconciliation is a spreadsheet

NDRs, RTOs and COD remittance get tracked manually, order by order.

Customer history resets on every channel

A repeat buyer on Instagram looks like a total stranger on the website.

Carts are abandoned and never chased

Most shoppers leave at checkout, and most stores have no automated way to bring them back.

Orders scatter across five dashboards

Website, WhatsApp, Instagram and marketplace orders never land in one place.

Marketing spend isn't tied to revenue

Coupons and campaigns run without ever confirming which one actually drove a sale.

Returns & refunds run over email

No unified workflow for pickup, quality check and refund status.

INTEGRATIONS

Fits into the stack you already run.

PrepCommerce sits alongside your existing payment gateway, courier and accounting tools — it doesn't ask you to replace them.

Payment gateways

Razorpay, PayU, Stripe and more — connect the one you already use.

Courier aggregators

Shiprocket, Delhivery, Xpressbees and more, rate-shopped automatically.

WhatsApp Business API

Order confirmations, tracking updates and cart-recovery nudges.

Marketplaces

Amazon, Flipkart, Meesho — catalog and orders synced both ways.

Accounting & GST

Tally and Zoho Books — invoices and reconciliation flow through automatically.

Open API

Push orders, inventory and customer data into your own BI or ERP tools.

Commerce data that explains itself, in plain English.

PrepCommerce doesn't just record sales — it reads the patterns across products, channels and customers, and tells owners what actually needs attention.

Company Health Index

Rolling 7-day blend of conversion, fulfillment SLA and repeat-purchase rate.

Store B's cart abandonment is 22% higher than Store A

Same campaign, different checkout speed — worth investigating page load on mobile.

WhatsApp Shop converts 2x better than Instagram

Redirect ad spend toward the higher-converting channel this month.

Restock "Classic Tee — Navy, M" within 3 days

Selling out twice a week at current velocity across all channels.

18% of repeat orders traced to an abandoned-cart nudge

Your highest-ROI campaign this quarter, by a wide margin.

Commerce infrastructure that takes payments seriously.

Every order carries money and personal data — PrepCommerce is engineered to protect both by default.

PCI-DSS compliant payments

Card data is tokenized at the gateway — it never touches your servers.

Encrypted at rest & in transit

Customer and order data protected end to end, always.

GST-ready invoicing

Every order generates a compliant tax invoice automatically.

DPDP Act aligned data handling

Customer data collected, stored and purged in line with Indian data-protection law.

Role-based access control

Staff, managers and owners see only what their role permits.

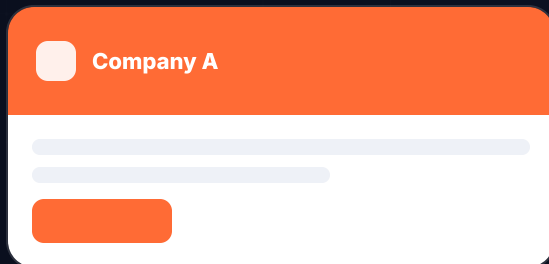

Full audit trail

Every order edit, refund and access is logged against the account that made it.

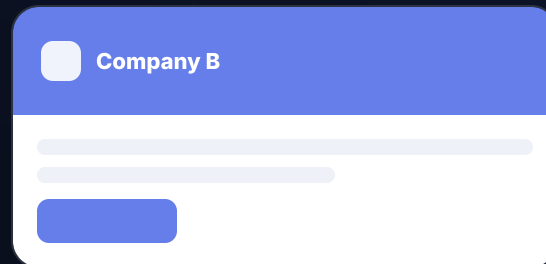

This isn't our storefront with your logo on it. It's your store, built by us.

Every PrepCommerce deployment ships under the client's own brand — logo, colors, domain and invoices. Prepseed is the engine underneath, never the name on screen.

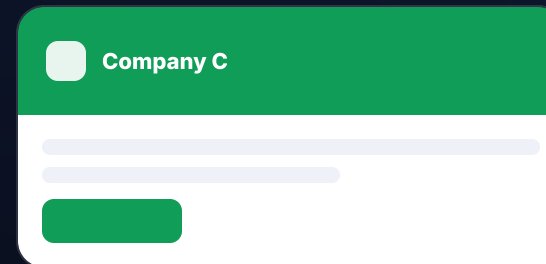

Your logo & brand color

Applied across the storefront, checkout and both mobile apps.

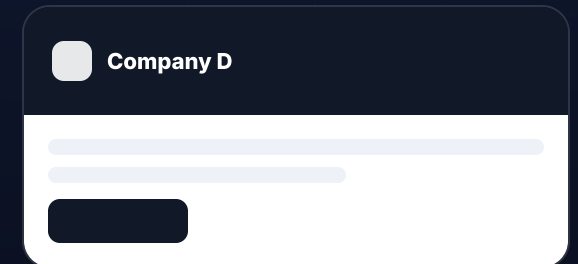

Your domain

shop.yourbrand.com — customers never see "Prepseed."

Your notifications

WhatsApp, SMS & email sent under your brand name.

Your payment gateway

Keep the gateway and merchant account you already have.

Your invoice templates

Every invoice and shipping label carries your branding.

Your support line

Your customers reach you — never Prepseed.

Your courier partners, kept

No forced switch — PrepCommerce works with the couriers you already use.

Your pricing

You decide what to charge your own customers or sub-sellers.

ONE VENDOR, ONE PLATFORM

No third-party plugins. No stitched-together stack.

Most stores pay for — and babysit — a cart-abandonment plugin, a loyalty app, a review widget and a courier dashboard, all bolted onto their storefront. With PrepCommerce there's nothing else to buy, connect or troubleshoot.

→ WhatsApp & SMS recovery — built in

Standalone loyalty app

→ Loyalty points & store credit, native

Review-widget subscription

→ Reviews, ratings & UGC — built in

Courier aggregator dashboard

Excel-based inventory tracker

WHAT THAT MEANS FOR YOU

One vendor, one bill

No juggling separate renewals and support tickets.

No plugin conflicts

Nothing breaks your storefront on the next theme or plugin update.

Your data stays in one place

Never scattered across multiple point-solution vendors.

One team accountable

Prepseed builds, hosts and supports all of it — no finger-pointing.

DEPLOYMENT MADE EASY

Nothing to migrate blind. We build around your catalog.

Deployment shouldn't mean months of re-entering products by hand. Share your catalog and channels and our team configures your store, payments and shipping around how you already sell.

Share your catalog & channels

Product data, existing marketplace listings and current payment/shipping setup.

We configure store, payments & shipping

Storefront, checkout, couriers and tax rules set up around how you already operate.

Pilot with real orders

Live on one channel first, so pricing, tax and fulfillment are verified before scale.

Roll out across every channel

Same catalog, same dashboard, across web, marketplaces and social — live within weeks.

WHY TEAMS TRUST THE ROLLOUT

Zero downtime

Your existing storefront keeps selling throughout migration.

Verified before scale

Nothing rolls out company-wide until the pilot proves out.

No vendor lock-in

Works with the payment gateway and couriers you already use.

Dedicated rollout team

A real person owns your migration, start to finish.
